I actually just logged out of the alt and into this account... it wasn't an incognito tab or anything. I don't know if this is relevant, but when I logged in it was on the WoF home page.

@Becky - I have a weird problem. I counted myself, and my siggy was only 249 characters, but it still would not let it through. Does it count word sizes and other stuff as characters? At one point, I counted it and it was 253, so I took away 4 characters, but it still would not go through.

Hear yea hear yea, h e r e ' s t he N e W s!

[Announcement]

As I posted yesterday, is a busy time so the release of these news posts might be more staggered for a bit - but it's for good reason! Just keep your eyes peeled for updates over the next two weeks. Believe me, I'm chomping at the bit to give you more.

[Question Corner]

@Night Cool, I look forward to seeing the topic of your FWRP! (Is it....trains?)

@Ishmael ah I see your GGaD post that just wouldn't be accepted. As I'm sure you figured, it was due to the description of violence. In some previous versions of the post it was also references to alcohol/drunkenness that were filtered. All I can really say at this point is bear with us for a bit longer. While the alcohol references may get caught in the future as well, we'll be able to understand context much better when it comes to fantasy violence in stories. And I'll have actual control, so you can blame me when stuff gets filtered ^_^

@Shi I'm seeing all your posts have come through, you did post this message a few days ago so I sure hope it's come through by now :P Let me know if it hasn't, because I'm not seeing anything by you that's been filtered lately.

@Nightwolf Let's just say that with all these new "join the WoFMB army!" posts popping up lately, all I can think of is ARMY. (I love Hobi)

@Kevin I dunno, how can anyone prove themselves to be the one true Kevin? Quite a philosophical quandry.

@Emma Both are great!

@Atlas HIIIIIIIYYYYAAAAAA

@Brine Winter color? Light blue. I like the light blue shadows in snow.

@Hiraeth Let's see... It was a post about when Ellysia stopped posting. It was posted but got eaten up by the filter afterwards.

@Jack Nope, I have not!

@Marine Coraline? (a twist on Brine's guess!)

@SeaQuake I'm afraid I've pretty much exhausted my options. If you remember your password, you can try some of the methods I recommended before - trying on an incognito/private window of your browser, or a different browser. Fairydragon was able to log into her main account after logging out of her alt, so you can try that too if you haven't yet.

@Nightengale I don't see any recent posts of yours that were caught - can you try posting it again?

@Astra Some symbols can have kind of wonky character counts, and if you're doing color fade with some code that can affect it as well. Honestly, you folks are far more knowledgeable about signatures than I am.

[Forum Prompts]

When you were 10, you found a crashed spaceship in the woods behind your house. You kept it a secret and have been slowly repairing it for the past 5 years. Finally it seems all fixed and ready to fly! You flip a switch which you've always assumed would turn it on (everything is labelled in an alien language afterall, you don't really know what anything says). But instead of turning on the ship, it turns on what appears to be...a distress signal.

Cobra- GAAD is some kind of Roleplaying with made up deities or something along those lines (I don't join because I can't write a coherent story to save my life), You could probably just jump into any GAAD thread and ask how to join.
